

Dual Credits at Carroll High School

Updated August, 2019

What is Dual Credit?

- ❖ Sometimes called concurrent credit
- ❖ Student earns both high school and college credit for the same course

Can I transfer my credits?

- ❖ Request an official transcript from the university (typically the Registrar's Office) in which the dual credits are coming from
- ❖ If you take dual credit from more than one institution, you will need to request an official transcript from each institution with a minimal processing cost
- ❖ You then take those transcripts to the university in which you want them to transfer

What happens if I get a poor grade?

- ❖ Grades are recorded on your permanent college transcript and will follow you wherever you go.
- ❖ You do NOT have the option to have a course or grade not recorded on your college transcript if you are not happy with the grade.
- ❖ You can retake a course, and depending on the university, it will either replace the first grade or the first grade will be excluded(not counted in the GPA) but will still show on the transcript.
- ❖ A poor grade will indicate to universities that you were not up to the rigors of college and you might be redirected to start your college career elsewhere.
- ❖ Final point – take dual credit courses seriously.

Does dropping a dual credit course have any impact?

- ❖ When you drop a class after the first week of class and before the last day to withdraw, it shows up on your college transcript as W for withdraw.
- ❖ This saves your college grade point average but has an impact on federal financial aid
- ❖ The colleges will be able to explain what impact this has on that aid

Admission Requirements to Receive Dual Credits

- PFW

- ❖ Top ½ of class
- ❖ “B” average overall GPA
- ❖ Completed Parent Permission form
- ❖ Completed Application

- Ann Brown from PFW will be here in the spring to give information about dual credit opportunities. Students interested in attending this meeting should sign up outside of guidance at least a day prior to the meeting. Students will receive a required Parent Permission form at this meeting.

PFW, Cont.

- Ann Brown will then come back within two weeks after the initial meeting to help students apply online to PFW for the dual credits
- Students will need to have completed and turned in the Parent Permission form to their counselor by the due date and will need to have their social security number in order to apply

Admission Requirements to Receive Dual Credits

- Trine University

- ❖ “B” Average Overall GPA

- Trine’s Dual Enrollment Coordinator will come to Carroll on or around the first day for the Literature Honors class and speak to the students about the opportunity for dual credit
 - Applications and Parent permission forms are given to students who are interested
 - Students must adhere to the due date for both in order to be awarded the dual credits

Admission Requirements to Receive Dual Credits:

- Ivy Tech

- ❖ Certain Accuplacer, PSAT, SAT, or ACT scores are needed to qualify for the dual credits

- Students can take the Accuplacer here at Carroll
 - Students can also take the Accuplacer at Ivy Tech
 - Completed online application is also required which is done during class time during those classes which are eligible for dual credit

Things to Think About....

- Always, always make sure that the dual credits that a student is receiving will transfer to the college/university he/she is thinking about attending
- You don't want to pay for a dual credit class only to find out that the credits do not transfer!
- Costs of dual credit courses are always subject to change!
