

SAT Information

When is the best time to take the SAT?

- Junior students should take the SAT in October, November or December

Should I take SAT Subject Tests?

- Some selective colleges require subject tests, but not many. Check with the colleges to see if this is even required for you to do.

How can I prepare for the SAT?

- SAT prep class – Doorway to College @ Carroll (in September – dates TBD)
- SAT prep class @ Bishop Dwenger – see your counselor for information
- Sign up for SAT Question of the Day and free practice tests at www.collegeboard.org
- Sign up for MyCollege QuickStart using your PSAT access code
- Khan Academy has practice questions, tests, videos and hints for the redesigned SAT. Visit: satpractice.org

How much does the SAT cost?

- SAT - $49.50
- SAT with Essay - $64.50

Should I send my scores to colleges?

- Yes. You get 4 score reports free with every registration. There is a $12.00 fee to send additional score reports.

How do I register?

- Sign up for a CollegeBoard account at www.collegeboard.org.
- Go to the SAT page on CollegeBoard's website.
- School Code - 151585
- You must sign in to your account to register.
- If you forget your username or password, contact CollegeBoard. Your counselor will not be able to help you with this.

What does the SAT test?

- Critical Reading, Writing, and Mathematics.
- 1600 is a perfect score for the two sections; each section (evidence-based reading and writing, and math) is scored between 200-800 points.
- 0 points are subtracted for incorrect student-produced responses

Average scores for college admittance vary by college. Please visit college websites to view their average SAT scores for incoming freshmen.

*Most colleges will super score – meaning they take the highest score from each test and combine them to give you the highest possible score... so send your scores to colleges you are really interested in.
